

MADISONVILLE, KY - The Legate family mission is to provide the best value in home furnishings to friends and neighbors in this community which has become a business the family can be proud of.

The family is proud to say that they live here, bank here, and support local community efforts to make Hopkins County a better place to live.

The mission statement for Legates Furniture World is simple. The Legate family believes your home is one of the most important investments in your life and it's not complete without the right home furnishings. When it comes to buying new furniture or floor covering, they know you are interested in style, comfort and price.

You don't buy new furniture every day, but when it's time to do just that, take your time and make sure you're getting the most out of your new investment. Legates Furniture World is locally owned and operated and has been in the business since 1960. Their team of sales professionals are friendly and knowledgeable.

Their flooring has been awarded Best Carpet Floor Covering the last 16 of 17 years by the Messenger Readers Choice.

I encourage you to shop locally and support our businesses here in Hopkins County. I also ask that you send us information of your favorite local business to profile here on iSurfHopkins.
