

Henry's Motel in Madisonville History Trivia

Written by Marion Miller
Monday, 01 June 2009 10:10

Madisonville, KY - Henry's Tourist Court Motel was owned by Henry Corbitt and located on US 41 South in Madisonville, KY.

The building in front later became the Pizza House started by G.M. Vandiver. He later built a new facility on East Center Street (now Rocksan's Pizza).

Currently in that location is the Todd's Discount Furniture store which was formerly West Kentucky Glass.

iSurf News was asked by a friend what the name of this hotel was and Gena Munger was able to provide this photo and information on the location.

If you have photos or stories of Madisonville or Hopkins County history, send it to us for publication. If it affects this community and is family-friendly in nature it WILL be published.

Henry's Motel in Madisonville History Trivia

Written by Marion Miller
Monday, 01 June 2009 10:10

(Cars in pictures looks like the picture was taken in 1951 per G. Munger. Historical Information by J. Harold Utley, Hopkins County Historical Society)

Marion M Miller, iSurf Local News & Community Information Affecting Madisonville and Hopkins County Kentucky.

Make us your homepage and send us your local news to publish. Add your news, calendar events, or FREE classifieds easily with registration and use of our easy features at the top of the page.

<http://isurfhopkinsco.com> Madisonville - Hopkins County Kentucky's homepage!